

Middleby Marshall Ovens Set New Guinness World Pizza Making Record

July 6, 2010 (Elgin, Ill.) – There was plenty of pizza to go around in Toronto on July 4 after celebrity chef Bob Blumer broke the Guinness World Record for most pizzas made in an hour. Blumer made 168 cheese and tomato pizzas in 60 minutes, beating the previous record of 142 pies set in 2008. He used Middleby Marshall WOW! Ovens to set the record.

"The WOW! Oven is the only oven in the world that can cook fast enough to keep up that kind of pace," said Middleby Marshall President Mark Sieron. "We are extremely proud to be a part of another Guinness World Record."

The record was set at the Corso Italia festival for an episode of the Food Network show "Glutton for Punishment." Bob stretched, sauced, cheesed and fired a pizza about every 22 seconds and the oven cooked the pizza in about 4 minutes.
